

• ENTRIES. As many as THREE students from grade level 7 and 8, OR ages 12 and 13 by Sept. 1 of the current school year, if in an ungraded school, may be entered in the IMPROMPTU SPEAKING District Contest from each school. Designated adults representing each school will select contestants to represent the campus at the District Meet based on their abilities and interest in public speaking, as well as other factors, which are decided upon by each school.

• ADVANCING TO STATE. 4 students must compete in this combined grade contest for the top 2 students to advance to State (See page 8 for complete rules.)

• NATURE OF THE CONTEST. This contest provides opportunities for students in grades 7 and 8 to evaluate speeches given by others; to explore the use of the voice and body in speaking situations; to examine the different purposes for speaking; to organize ideas; to prepare and deliver various speeches; and to develop self-confidence in speaking before a live audience. (Audiences are required for this contest.)

Contestants will draw three topics and have three minutes to prepare a speech, which must be presented without any notes. The contest gives participants experience in thinking, organizing, formulating clear thoughts, and delivering those thoughts to an audience effectively.

The maximum time limit for each speech is five minutes. There is no minimum time limit. Students who exceed the allotted five minutes shall be disqualified. Better speeches are at least three minutes in length, however.

Appropriate Gestures: The Impromptu Speaking contest rules include the following instructions: Responsive use of the body (i.e., spontaneous changes in posture, gesture, and place-to-place movement) are permissible. However, this active use of the body should:

- (A) be appropriate to the demands of the selection;
- (B) be a natural outgrowth from the literature to be performed;
- (C) not call attention to itself;
- (D) be limited in scope;

One or two steps are acceptable during presentation. The judge's opinion in this matter is final.

Sample Impromptu Speaking Topics

from 2010 Meets

- I like/don't like spinach because . . .
- Birds fly south for the winter because . . .
- If I had enough gumption, I would . . .
- If I were 10 feet tall, I would . . .
- Professional athletes' salaries are/are not appropriate . . .
- Of the five senses my favorite is . . .
- Some good ways to save money include . . .
- If I could play a TV role, I would like to play the part of . . .

• WHAT HAPPENS IN THE CONTEST. 1) The contest director will announce the time and place that contestants and one adult should report for evaluation pick-up and/or awards presentation. (Alternates taking the place of absent registered contestants should be sure to let the contest director know as they enter the room to save time in roll call.) 2) The contest director will call speaker number 1 to draw three topics from an envelope or other container. 3) Contestants select one of the three topics within a 60-second period, and 4) speak on the topic after three minutes of preparation. The two topics not chosen are placed back in the envelope or drawing container. The topic that is selected is not returned to the envelope. Because the PSIA events are meant to be educational, the contestants may remain in the contest room and audiences should be welcomed, but no one may enter the room once the contest has started. Contestants may use blank paper to organize ideas during preparation. However, notes may NOT be used when giving the speech. The contestant will speak before a single judge or a panel of three judges. All speech events are judged by an odd number of judges who rank contestants without collaboration with one another or the contest director. When the presentation reaches 4 1/2 minutes in length, the "30 seconds left" should be held up by the contest director, who also serves as the timekeeper, in order to assist the contestant in stopping the speech prior to the end of the 5-minute time limit. For panel judging, the ranking procedure found on pages 37-39 must be used.

• ADVANCING TO THE FINAL ROUND. If there are more than 9 students in the competition, two or more sections of the contest (preliminary round) will be held. The top ranked contestants from each section (top 3 if 2 section/ top 2 if 3 sections) will advance to the final round. A different set of topics will be used in the final round, but all rules are the same for both rounds.

• POSTING THE PRELIMINARY ROUND.

After judges have made their decisions in the preliminary rounds, contestants pick up their evaluations at the time and place designated on the schedule. At this time the names of the contestants advancing to the final round will be announced in random order and posted on a designated bulletin board in a random speaking order for the final round.

• MATERIALS. Additional practice topics are available in the PSIA Study Materials Packets (Study Materials Order Form).